AVON NEWS

Avon, March 6.—We have no signs of spring as we have about a foot and a half of snow. The health of the people is good, there being no sickness with the exception of one case of bronchial pneumonia, that being the little son of Mr. Alonzo Burrell who has been very ill, but Dr. Ellason who is doctoring the little fellow says that with good care he will soon recover.

Wednesday was a day long to be remembered by the sports of our town who had a rabbit hunting contest. They gathered together early that morning and chose sides. The score was 19-17 in favor of Roy Jackson and his squad. The losing party gave a dance in the evening. A great number from Paradise were present.

Mrs. George Summers entertained Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Lemon's daughter Anna and Son Melvin of Paradise, also Miss Jennie Thomas of Portland, Oregon. Supper was served at 6 o'clock. The evening was spent in music; Miss Estella Summers furnishing the music.

The officers of the Primary Association gave a bow dance Friday evening. All participated in a good time.

The stork has been doing a thriving business in our town, having left a fine girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nicholas, a girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Cook, and twin boys to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Moss. All concerned are doing nicely excepting Perry who, we are in great hopes will soon recover from the shock as this is his first. He rather enjoys being a proud father and still lives in hopes of the stork coming next time with twin girls.

The Sewing Club was entertained Thursday at the home of Miss Emily Knowles. Luncheon was served. Next Thursday Miss Estella Summers will entertain.

Mrs. Hannah Miles, daughters, Jane James and Lavon Miles, were Paradise guests at Mrs. G. W. Summers, Tuesday.

Mr. Jess Rock of Howell is visiting with his brother Frank Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Forsberg, spent the week end in Tremonton where they went to attend a funeral. Two of Mr. J. A. McArthur's brothers from Idaho, have been down visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gloyd Hyde is visiting with Mrs. P. A. Johnson.

Man is unjust but God is just, and finally justice triumphs.—Selected.

MAN FROM HOME

noon and again to the general public tonight.

The Man From Home is a catchy little play and is pleasing its audience where it is playing. The play has a sort of melting pot situation, a melting pot, however, the ingredients in which instead of melting rather react upon each other. Especially is this so toward the man from home who shows up in his American frankness and sturdiness in contrast with the froth of the deposed English noblemen, the affected dandy of the young Lord, with his useless mania and his glaring idiosyncrasy, in contrast with the wiles of the French adventures and her irascible husband. In the houses where the stages are large enough to accommodate the scenery the play has an exceptionally pleasing appearance—electrical effects, costumes all blending with a pretty effect. Tonight the play is presented mostly to the students of the B. Y. C. tomorrow night Wednesday, March 8, the play will be repeated. Tickets on sale at Morrell's.

City Auditor Will Larsen when examining the records in his office the other day ascertained that 1915 was a banner year for babies in Logan. In the year 1914, 183 babies came to town, while in 1915 the stork brought 331.

It is splendid showing of Norfolk suits—plain, belted, tucked backs—regular and patch pockets in many variations.

Trousers are large and roomy, and full-lined with extra strong twill. All seams are re-inforced with strong tape and sewed three times to prevent breaking. The utmost utility is arranged for in trousers by leaving plenty of outlet in the waist and seat, making it easy to enlarge them for growing boys.

All this has meant considerable hand work and tailoring to produce a finished XTRAGOOD suit. Therefore, the finished appearance and well dressed look one of these suits gives to a boy when it is new remain during a long wearing period.
